

Welcome – nice of you to visit us.

With a production of more than 40 million book products per year we are the printing specialist for coloured books, brochures, catalogues and magazines in compact format.

With this specialisation, Parzeller print & media has developed into one of the market leaders in Germany. Impressive references and constant growth provide new evidence of our expertise every day.

Our service begins with expert consultation which can already point out substantial saving potentials while your project is still at the planning stage. From the order preparation to the data handling to the packing and shipping logistics we offer you made-to-measure, all-inclusive services for efficient and problem-free production. For all work steps, our contacts are at your disposal for your questions and requests.

We are sure that we will be able to make you an attractive offer for your projects and look forward to your enquiry!
